

You can calculate the age of a tree by looking at the stump.
The number of rings indicates the number of years the tree lived.